Curry had a decent acting career in mostly supporting roles, and his only award of note was a single Emmy. He was not close to being the top actor of his generation. This is precisely the sort of person that RD was introduced for. On a quick skim, the article quality seems fine for RD. Modest Genius ^{talk} 17:58, 26 August 2026 (UTC) [reply]

- Oppose blurb Not an "icon", not "transformative". He had one major role that this blurb case is getting based on. Compare and contrast with Dolly Parton yesterday. It should be obvious that they aren't in the same league. — Muboshgu ^(talk) 20:29, 26 August 2026 (UTC) [reply]

I would argue there are quite a few notable major roles he performed, but I understand where you're coming from.

Nominator's comments: early toll numbers around 1000 still missing. Also making rounds due to footage of the flood hitting a busy street. MASEM (t) 12:42, 26 August 2026 (UTC) [reply]

- Support, I've tidied up the article from the poor state it was in an hour ago. The death toll has already risen per BBC so I wonder if the blurb should be Dozens are killed. : qcne ^(talk) 12:53, 26 August 2026 (UTC) [reply] assuming this gets posted, we can use the most recent sourced numbers then. It'll take a few hours at least to decide so

Kung ang pagiging anti-drug ng ilang DDS personalities ay sobrang ingay at sobrang performative online, paano ngayon kapag isa sa sarili nilang kampo ang siya namang nahaharap sa ganitong kabigat na drug allegations?

Hindi ba't paboritong linya ng ilan: "Kapag may kaso, may ebidensiya siguro"? "Wala namang inosenteng naaaresto"?

O applicable lang ba ang ganoong logic kapag kalaban sa politika ang inaakusahan?

The irony is irony-ing.

#BreakingNews #DDS #DrugWar #Bacolod
#JuliaPerueloTV #DueProcess #PDEA

Tinukoy rin umano ng PDEA-Negros Island Region ang dalawa bilang alleged notorious drug pushers.

Pero teka lang, dahil may kontrabida-versus-accused plot twist!

Sa video matapos ang operasyon, galit na hinarap ni Peruelo ang local media at mariing itinanggi ang mga alegasyon laban sa kanya at sa kanyang partner.

"Indi ko ni deserve [We do not deserve this]," iyak ng gaga, habang iginiit na hindi sila sangkot sa illegal drug activity.

At siyempre, allegations remain allegations hanggang mapatunayan sa korte. Ang pagkakaaresto at mga paratang ng law enforcement ay hindi pa katumbas ng conviction.

Pero hindi rin maiwasang mapansin ang irony ng sitwasyon.

Kagaya na lang ng diumano'y kaso ng kapamilya, o baka kapatid, o iba pang kaanak, ng isang die-hard DDS at self-proclaimed "scriptwriter" kuno ni Pyona, na si Igit Gurl Tio Moreno. May kapamilya umano siyang na-buy-bust in the past. Public record na 'yan, so hindi na basta maitatanggi.

Kung ang pagiging anti-drug ng ilang DDS

SNAPSHOTS: MGA ANTI-DRUG KUNO, PERO NA-BUY-BUST? DDS VLOGGER "JULIA PERUELO TV" ARRESTED IN BACOLOD!

Ay, another day, another plot twist!

Typical daw kasi ng ilang DDS o die-hard Duterte fanatics ang todo-performative pagdating sa pagiging anti-drug. Matapang manghusga, mabilis mag-akusa at parang laging may moral high ground sa usapin ng droga.

Pero minsan, may mga rebelasyon talagang mas dramatic pa sa teleserye.

Naaresto sa isang buy-bust operation sa Bacolod City noong August 25 ang pro-Duterte vlogger na si Joselito Peruelo, mas kilala online bilang "Julia Peruelo TV," kasama ang kanyang live-in partner na si Christian Tolentino.

Ayon sa Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency-Negros Island Region, ang dalawa ay inaresto sa Purok Magtiayon, Barangay 10 at iniulat na nakumpiskahan ng 13 sachets ng hinihinalang shabu na tumitimbang ng humigit-kumulang 50 grams at may tinatayang halagang ₱340,000, kasama ang isang improvised tooter.

Tinukoy rin umano ng PDEA-Negros Island

The striking resemblance between former Vice Mayor Jeffrey Padoginog Ganzon and his father, the legendary Senator Rodolfo "Roding" Ganzon Sr., is a beautiful sight for Iloilo City. Jeffrey did not just inherit the "Grand Timawa's" iconic face; he kept his fierce heartbeat for the poor alive. Today, that unyielding Ilonggo pride and grass-roots service continue through Jeffrey's sons—Councilor Rudolph "Roding" Ganzon, Gerald, and Lucky—proving that a true father's legacy never dies.

'I WAS REFERRING TO LEADING QUESTIONS'

Nilinaw ni Defense counsel Atty. Kristine Ferrer na leading questions ang tinutukoy niya nang sabihin ang mga katagang "they are allowed" sa gitna ng cross-examination sa impeachment trial noong Aug. 12.

"Because the journal dated August 12, [2026] would show that I was indeed asking a leading question before Atty. [Lorna] Kapunan objected, your honor," paliwanag niya.

"If we take a look at it, with all due respect, the objection was even improper at that time, your honor. But I want that issue to be closed," dagdag pa niya.

The controversy raises a broader question about shared public spaces: how should freedom to express religious beliefs be balanced with other commuters' desire for a quiet and comfortable journey?

LRT management discourages loud conversations inside trains, partly to maintain a peaceful environment and ensure passengers can hear important announcements.

Some commenters stressed that they were not necessarily opposed to public preaching itself. Instead, they suggested open spaces such as parks or streets, where people can choose whether to stay and listen, rather than enclosed transportation where passengers have limited ability to move away.

She was dismayed after a guard told her preaching wasn't allowed.

Filipino evangelist Ronelyn Dela Fuente said a security guard approached her shortly after she began preaching aboard the LRT-1, a major commuter rail line serving Metro Manila in the Philippines, and told her the activity was not allowed.

Dela Fuente later expressed disappointment online, arguing that sharing the "Word of God" should not be discouraged at a time when the country faces many social problems.

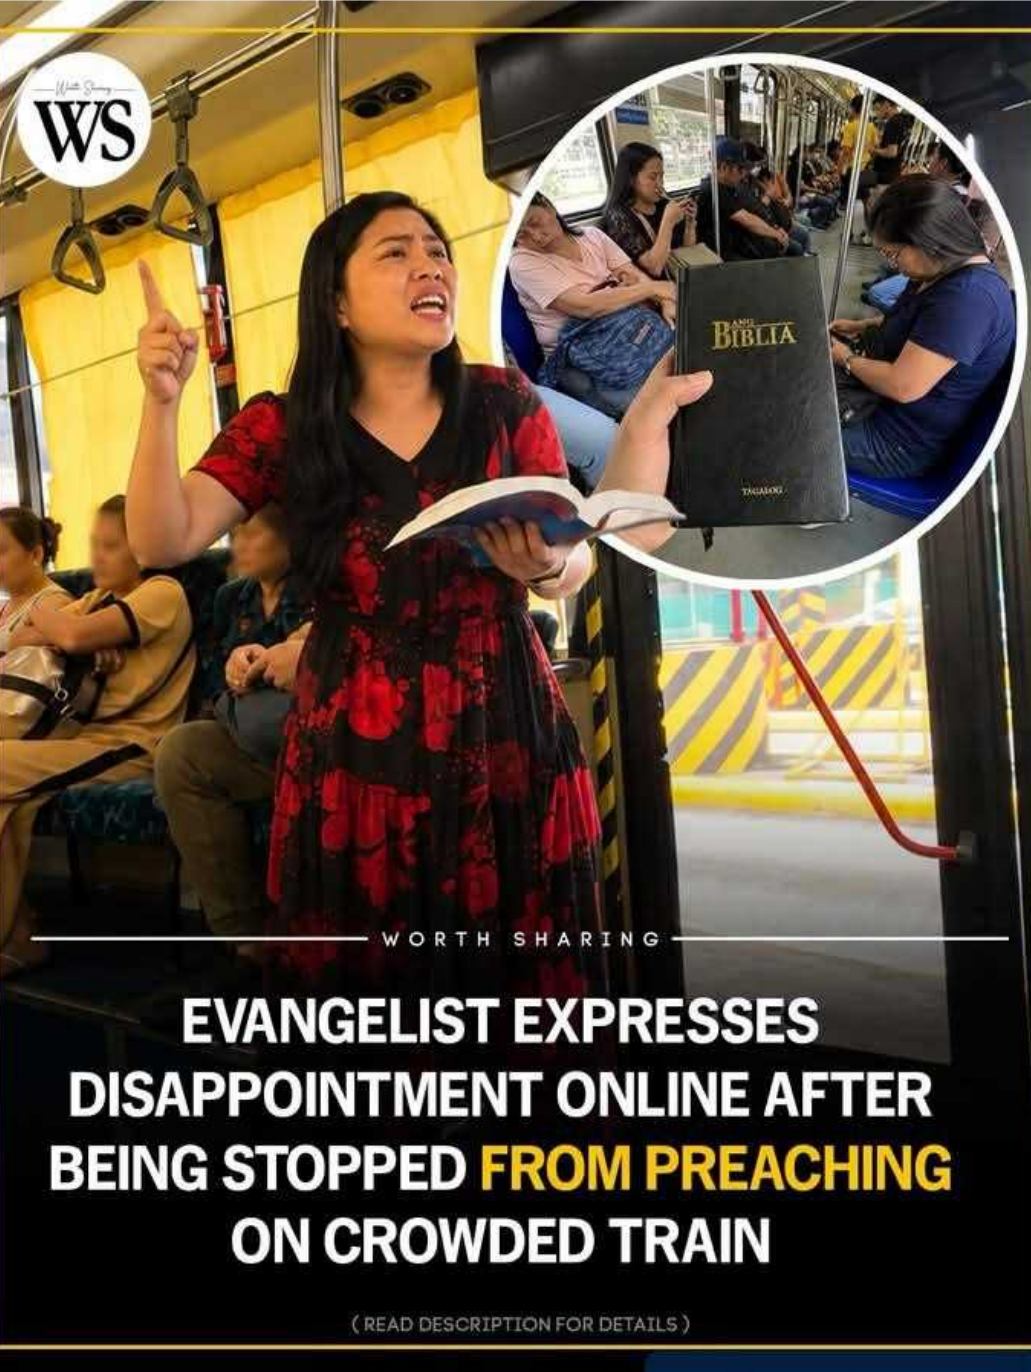

But her experience drew a very different response from many commuters. Critics said trains are shared spaces where workers and students often use their journey as a brief opportunity to rest. Others noted that passengers come from different religious backgrounds—or may have no religion at all—and should not be expected to listen to a sermon while riding.

₱3.5 MILLION TO KEEP ILOILO CITY CLEANER AND GREENER

Iloilo City's new ₱3.5-million mini sweeper truck is ready to help keep the Esplanade, public plazas, and Sunset Boulevard cleaner and more efficient to maintain. With its compact design and 1.6-ton waste capacity, could this be the next big step toward a cleaner and more livable Iloilo City?

She died on February 5, 251, still wrapped in that red veil.

She is invoked against fire, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and as patron of those suffering from breast cancer and other illnesses.

St. Agatha, protector of Catania and intercessor for the afflicted, pray for us. Amen! 🙏

In the year 252, just one year after St. Agatha was martyred in Catania, Sicily, Mount Etna erupted. A river of lava raced toward the city. People feared everything would be destroyed.

Christians and pagans together ran to her tomb. They took the red veil that had covered her body and carried it in procession toward the advancing fire, praying for her intercession.

The lava stopped.

That first miracle made Agatha the beloved patroness of Catania. Over the centuries the same veil was carried out again and again — in 1169, 1669, 1886 and other eruptions. Each time the people of Sicily tell the same story: the fire halted.

St. Agatha, a young consecrated virgin, had already endured brutal torture for refusing to abandon her faith. Tradition says St. Peter himself appeared in her prison cell and healed her wounds.

She died on February 5, 251, still wrapped in that red veil.

She is invoked against fire, earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and as patron of those suffering from breast cancer and other illnesses.

Kiko Barzaga: Hindi online games at social media ang dapat sisihin sa school shootings

Nagbigay ng pananaw si dating Congressman Kiko Barzaga tungkol sa patuloy na diskusyon sa mga posibleng dahilan ng mga insidente ng school shooting.

Ayon kay Barzaga, hindi umano dapat ibunton ang sisi sa online games at social media dahil hindi niya ito nakikitang pangunahing dahilan ng mga pamamaril sa mga paaralan.

Sa halip, sinabi niyang mas dapat pagtuunan ng pansin ang umano'y kakulangan sa regulasyon sa mga baril at ang pagiging iresponsable ng ilang gun owners.

Dumating ang kanyang pahayag habang patuloy ang diskusyon tungkol sa epekto ng online games at social media sa pag-uugali ng mga kabataan.

Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) sa kanilang budget hearing kahapon sa Kamara,” saad ng kongresista.

Ayon kay Diokno, iminungkahi niya sa budget hearing ang pagkakaroon ng pambansang masterplan sa flood mitigation. Hinimok niya rin ang DPWH na paigtingin ang lifestyle checks, conflict-of-interest disclosures, at iba pang transparency measures upang labanan ang korapsyon sa ahensya.

“Hindi na dapat normal ang pagbabaha. Kailangan itong solusyunan ngayon na,” aniya.

‘NAKAKAGALIT, NAKAKALUNGKOT, HINDI ITO KATANGGAP-TANGGAP’

Ito ang pahayag ni Akbayan Rep. Chel Diokno kaugnay ng hindi pa humuhupang baha sa Pampanga matapos niyang magtungo roon noong nakaraang linggo upang magsagawa ng relief operations.

“Ito ang realidad na hinarap natin sa Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) sa kanilang budget hearing kahapon sa Kamara,” saad ng kongresista.

Ayon kay Diokno, iminungkahi niya sa budget hearing ang pagkakaroon ng pambansang masterplan sa flood mitigation. Hinimok niya rin ang DPWH na paigtingin ang lifestyle checks, conflict-of-interest disclosures, at iba pang transparency measures upang labanan ang korapsyon sa ahensya.

Tim Curry, the versatile performer of screen and stage, who made his name as the flamboyant Dr Frank-N-Furter in The Rocky Horror Show, has died aged 80. Reports said Curry died at his home in Los Angeles.

Curry's best-known roles all required a considerable physical transformation, to the extent that he was unrecognisable in all of them, including playing Rocky Horror's deranged scientist, which saw him daubed in garish makeup and wearing stockings and suspenders.

Alongside these show-stopping incarnations, Curry enjoyed a successful parallel career in film, TV and theatre.

In 2012, Curry had a stroke while receiving a massage and received brain surgery. He was left with mobility issues and his short-term memory was also affected.

"I'm very aware that I'm lucky," Curry told the Guardian in 2025. "I'm astonished actually at how ambitious I've been. I didn't think of myself as ambitious at all."

Swipe to see some of Curry's iconic roles and tap the link for the full story ►

Balewala para kay Senator Robinhood Padilla ang mga natatanggap na bashing o pagtuligsa sa kanya ng mga netizens sa social media dahil sa mga pagtatanong sa impeachment trial.

Kaugnay na rin ito sa naging pagtatanong ni Padilla kay Atty. Mae Divinagracia ng prosecution team tungkol sa paggamit ng alias kung saan tinukoy niya maging ang mga Pilipinong bayani ay gumamit din noon ng iba't ibang aliases.

Giit ni Padilla, hindi naman mga netizens ang namba-bash sa kanya kundi mga trolls.

Katunayan, masaya pa aniya siya para sa mga trolls dahil pinagkakakitaan ng mga ito ang pamba-bash sa kanya.

Hindi naman sinagot ni Padilla ang pagkukumpara niya sa paggamit ng alias ng mga bayani sa mga aliases na nakalagda sa mga acknowledgement receipts na tumanggap ng confidential funds ni Vice President Sara Duterte.

A Home Alone 2 rewatch will feel different this Christmas following the loss of three memorable cast members in 2026. Catherine O'Hara, Tim Curry and Brenda Fricker each brought unforgettable characters to the film, leaving behind performances that remain part of a Christmas classic watched by generations.

subordinates that almost ensured Ninoy would not make it out of that airport tarmac alive.

Those rumors of airport assassination prompted Ninoy to somehow veil his return — by using the pseudonym Marcial Bonifacio in his fake passport. (It was derived from Martial Law and Fort Bonifacio, his prison cell within almost eight years.)

Did it work? History will tell you the answer. Nevertheless, despite the clear risks against his own life, Ninoy Aquino decided to come home, even in the face of a certain public execution.

Ninoy did not need millions in confidential funds to ascertain that he was about to commit a huge gamble once he stepped off that aircraft.

Marcial Bonifacio was an alias that symbolized bravery and martyrdom, and a yearning to come home.

Maybe Sen. Padilla should know of two other aliases that were used, like Mary Grace Piattos, for corruption and plunder of people's funds: William Saunders and Jane Ryan. Google is free. We suggest to the good senator, or his office, to make use of the Internet and do their proper research.

#DefendHistoricalTruth

Everyone around him told him not to come home.

And in that final series of interviews that he had with journalists, both in Taipei and on board his China Airlines flight, Ninoy already hinted at the idea that he could be murdered as soon as his plane lands on the Manila International Airport.

But no confidential or intelligence fund would have prevented his brutal assassination because, as was proven in government inquiries and court decisions between 1983 and 2005, the plot to kill him was planned, orchestrated, and carried out with an almost unalterable dedication from the highest echelons of the same military and police establishment that you have been vocally supporting, which worked under the auspices of the Marcos Sr. dictatorship.

Gen. Fabian Ver, AFP chief-of-staff and mastermind of Oplan Balikbayan, gave instructions and contingencies to his subordinates that almost ensured Ninoy would not make it out of that airport tarmac alive.

Those rumors of airport assassination prompted Ninoy to somehow veil his return — by using the pseudonym Marcial Bonifacio in his fake passport. (It was derived from Martial Law and Fort Bonifacio, his prison cell within almost eight years.)

Quick history lesson for Sen. Robin Padilla:

Ninoy Aquino did not need to have or use any confidential funds to ascertain any threat against his life because it was already served to him, on a silver platter, by the same people he crossed swords with during the Marcos Sr. dictatorship.

Imelda Marcos met him in New York to warn him about threats to his life. Juan Ponce Enrile telegraphed that same warning to him. Marcos crony-controlled newspapers were awash with the same speculations.

His other political allies, including Salvador Laurel and Eva Estrada-Kalaw, told him that there are rumors that he would be killed should he come back to Manila. In fact, Laurel was even quoted as saying that Mrs. Marcos purportedly told him, point-blank, that "if he comes home, he's dead."

His entire intelligence network — which he had built without a single cent of confidential or intelligence funds — was stern about the chance that he would be shot dead if he returns to the Philippines.

Everyone around him told him not to come home.

Sa kanyang interjection, inihambing ni Padilla ang paggamit ng alyas sa confidential funds ni VP Sara at ang pagkakaroon noon ng alyas ng mga bayani ng bansa.

Noong 1865, balak patayin ng samurai na si Takuma Sawabe si Father Nikolai dahil sa Kristiyanismo.

Ngunit matapos marinig ang kanyang mga turo, nagbago siya, nagpabinyag noong 1868, at naging unang Japanese Orthodox priest siya noong 1875.

Para sa ilan, isa itong himala o tadhana: ang samurai na dating gustong pumatay ng pari ay siya ring naging pari.

Selena Gomez and Taylor Swift: Best Friends, Both Engaged

 2K Aug 27, 2026 4:26:14 PM

From a handmade friendship bracelet to a magnificent diamond ring — Taylor Swift and Travis Kelce announced their engagement after two years of dating.

Swift shared the news via an Instagram post of snaps from a fairytale-like engagement photos.

The singer wrote, “Your English teacher and your gym teacher are getting married.”

The post also featured Swift’s own song “So High School” — a song she had written after dating Kelce. | via News5

Leíue and myself that happened at the Projex
CC Maid Cafe at Toycon Nexus Day 3 at SMX on 14 June 2026.

I recognize that my actions that day made Shua feel uncomfortable and crossed a boundary she did not consent to. I personally extended my sincere apology for the distress this has caused her, and for the subsequent messages I posted which downplayed the seriousness of the incident.

Together with my family and her manager, we have reached a mutual settlement in confidence.

Further, for our best interest, we have agreed to keep our distance from one another at all future events and venues.

I also apologize to Projex CC and to the cosplay and idol communities for the disruption this issue has caused.

Going forward, I will always be mindful of boundaries and conduct myself respectfully and appropriately at all events.

Thank you.

Two legends gone within 24 hours, but their legacies will live forever. 🕊️❤️

In a heartbreaking back-to-back loss, entertainment has said goodbye to Dolly Parton and Tim Curry.

Dolly gave generations Jolene, 9 to 5, I Will Always Love You, and Steel Magnolias, building a legacy that stretched from country music and Hollywood to philanthropy and children's literacy.

Tim Curry left an entirely different kind of mark. He gave us Dr. Frank-N-Furter in The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Pennywise in IT, Wadsworth in Clue, Long John Silver in Muppet Treasure Island, and countless unforgettable performances across stage, screen, animation, and games.

One could make millions sing along.

The other could make you laugh, shiver, or stare at the screen wondering what you had just witnessed.

Different careers. Different audiences. Same rare ability to become unforgettable.

Hindi iyong pinakamagaling mamigay ng ayuda.

Kundi iyong nagtatrabaho para dumating ang araw na mas kaunti na ang kailangang humingi nito.

Hindi iyong marunong lang makisama sa masa.

Kundi iyong marunong gumawa ng sistema kung saan, kahit hindi ka niya kilala, kahit hindi mo siya binoto, kahit hindi ka sumayaw sa rally niya, gumagana pa rin ang gobyerno para sa iyo.

Dahil ang pinakamataas na anyo ng pagiging maka-masa ay hindi pagiging malapit sa mahirap.

Ito ay paggawa ng mga institusyong nagbibigay sa mahirap ng pagkakataong hindi manatiling mahirap.

Aug 27, 2026 4:22:41 PM

parehong masa.

At ito ang pinakamalaking irony: minsan, ang politician na mukhang pinakamalapit sa mahirap ang policies naman ang pinakamalayo sa interes ng mahirap.

Kaya kailangan nating baguhin ang tanong.

Huwag lang: "Mabait ba siya sa tao?"

Tanungin din: Ano ang binoto niyang budget? Anong batas ang sinuportahan niya? Sino ang nakinabang? Sino ang nagbayad? Ano ang sinabi ng mga eksperto? Ano ang long-term effect sa presyo, trabaho, edukasyon, kalusugan at utang ng bansa?

Because governance is not measured by how warmly a politician hugs a vendor.

It is measured by whether that vendor's children will still need political connections twenty years from now just to survive.

Ang tunay na maka-masa ay hindi iyong mahusay magmukhang ordinaryong tao.

Ang tunay na maka-masa ay iyong gumagawa ng gobyernong hindi kailangang lumuhod ang ordinaryong tao para mapansin.

Hindi Aug 27, 2026 4:22:39 PM mamigay ng ayuda.

May isa pang problema: ang pagiging “maka-masa” ay madalas ding sinusukat sa personality.

“Marunong makisama.”

“Game sumayaw.”

“Palabiro.”

“Parang tropa lang.”

Pero public office is not a personality contest for the most entertaining ninong sa barangay.

A politician can be charming and still vote for policies that economists, scientists, academics, sectoral groups and professionals have repeatedly warned against.

Puwedeng mahusay siyang makipagkamay pero mahina magbasa ng budget.

Puwedeng mahusay mag-TikTok pero hindi mahusay mag-legislate.

Puwedeng marunong sumayaw kasama ang masa habang ang mga boto niya sa Kongreso o Senado ay unti-unting nagpapahirap din sa parehong masa.

Aug 27, 2026 4:22:37 PM

Hindi lang namimigay ng school supplies. Tinatanong niya kung bakit kulang ang classrooms, teachers at learning outcomes.

Hindi lang nagpapalibre ng dialysis. Gumagawa siya ng sistemang hindi kailangang lumapit ang pasyente sa opisina ng politiko para mabuhay.

Hindi lang nagbibigay ng trabaho sa kakilala. Lumilikha siya ng ekonomiyang may sapat na disenteng trabaho kahit hindi mo kilala ang mayor, congressman o gobernador.

Iyan ang malaking difference ng charity politics at rights-based governance.

Sa charity politics, may benefactor at beneficiary.

Sa rights-based governance, may citizen at institution.

At mas mahirap ang pangalawa dahil kapag gumagana na ang institusyon, hindi mo na kailangang magpasalamat sa politiko.

That is precisely why good institutions are politically inconvenient to politicians who thrive on dependency.

May isa pang problema: ang pagiging “maka-masa” ay madalas ding sinusukat sa personality.

Aug 27, 2026 4:22:34 PM

tinadaan ang politiko na nag-abot ng grocery kaysa ang mambabatas na gumawa ng batas para bumaba ang presyo ng gamot. Mas photogenic ang relief goods kaysa institutional reform.

Diyan nananalo ang spectacle laban sa structure.

At understandable kung bakit.

Kung araw-araw mong problema ang pagkain, renta, gamot at pamasah, hindi abstract ang ₱2,000. Totoo iyon. Immediate. May bigas kang maiuuwi ngayong gabi.

Samantalang ang “governance reform” parang powerpoint presentation na hindi mo naman mailuluto.

Kaya hindi dapat insultuhin ang mahihirap dahil tumatanggap sila ng ayuda. Ang mas mahalagang tanong ay: bakit sa isang bansang napakaraming taon nang may ayuda, napakaraming tao pa rin ang kailangang pumila para sa ayuda?

Doon dapat magsimula ang pagsusuri.

Ang tunay na maka-masa ay hindi lang mahusay magbigay ng ambulansya. Tinatanong niya kung bakit walang maayos na ospital.

Hindi lang namimigay ng school supplies.

Aug 27, 2026 4:22:30 PM

At dito nagiging delikado ang politika.

Sa political science, may konseptong tinatawag na clientelism: isang sistema kung saan ang relasyon ng mamamayan at politiko ay nagiging personal at transactional. May ayuda, scholarship, medical assistance, sobre, funeral assistance, referral. Kapalit nito, nabubuo ang pakiramdam na “si Mayor ang tumulong sa akin.”

Hindi naman masama ang ayuda. In fact, social protection is a legitimate function of government. Kapag nawalan ka ng trabaho, nasalanta ng bagyo, nagkasakit o nagutom ang pamilya mo, dapat may gobyernong sasalo.

Ang problema ay kapag ang karapatan ay ipinackage bilang personal na kabutihan ng politiko.

Kapag ang perang galing sa buwis mo ay ibinigay sa iyo na parang utang na loob mo sa apelyido nila.

Mas madaling makita ang ₱5,000 na hawak mo ngayon kaysa ang epekto ng maayos na procurement system na makakatipid ng bilyon sa loob ng sampung taon. Mas madaling tandaan ang politiko na nag-abot ng grocery kaysa ang mambabatas na gumawa ng batas para bumaba ang presyo ng gamot. Mas photogenic ang relief goods kaysa institutional

Hindi Lahat ng Marunong Makisayaw ay Maka-Masa

May kakaibang definition tayo minsan ng “maka-masa.”

Kapag marunong mag-joke sa palengke, kumain gamit ang kamay sa harap ng camera, sumayaw sa fiesta, mamigay ng ayuda, yumakap sa matatanda at tawaging “boss” ang tricycle driver, mabilis nating sabihing: “Ay, maka-masa talaga.”

Pero kapag may politiko o public official na nagsasalita tungkol sa procurement reform, transparency, universal healthcare, education standards, anti-dynasty laws, competition policy, social protection, fiscal discipline o matinong urban planning, ang tingin minsan: elitista. Masyadong technical. Hindi marunong makisama.

Parang ang qualification para maging maka-masa ay hindi kung gumaganda ang buhay ng masa, kundi kung mukha kang komportable habang nakikisayaw sa kanila.

At dito nagiging delikado ang politika.

Sa political science, may konseptong tinatawag na clientelism: isang sistema kung saan ang

FACT CHECK

FALSE: Jinggoy Estrada hospitalized due to anal fissures

JESSIE MARCO CABRERA

'MAY PUNIT ANG PWET'.

FALSE

→ A circulating post on social media shared a screenshot of a GMA News report of Senator Jinggoy Estrada being escorted by Bureau of Jail Management and Penology (BJMP) personnel with the caption 'MAY PUNIT ANG PWET'.

CLAIM

→ The post, while being humorous, represents Estrada being escorted to the hospital due to anal fissures.

CONCLUSION

→ While the senator was indeed brought to the hospital on Thursday, reports say that it was because he had a knee injury while taking a bath in his detention cell.

Japanese avant-garde artist Yayoi Kusama, whose signature polka dots, bold colours and immersive installations made her one of the world's most recognisable contemporary artists, has died at the age of 97.

Kusama's career spanned more than six decades and included paintings, sculptures, performances and large-scale installations. Her Infinity Mirror Rooms, pumpkin sculptures and repeated polka-dot patterns became internationally celebrated works and helped turn the artist into a global cultural phenomenon.

Kusama continued producing art into her later years, building an extraordinary legacy that crossed contemporary art, pop culture and fashion.

‘NAKAKAHIYA SA ESKUWELAHAN KUNG SAAN KA NAG-ARAL AND NAG-GRADUATE... See more

 Sen.-Judge Raffy Tulfo

Sayang po 'yung pagkatalino mo rito. Nasira po 'yung pagiging isang matalino mong tao. Nakakahiya po doon sa mga eskuwelahan na kung saan ka nag-aral at nag-graduate.

 Lemuel Ortonio

With all due respect, Your Honor, I personally took offense of that comment. I actually just did my duty. At the time, Sir, I believe na 'yun po 'yung kailangan kong gawin bilang isang empleyado po, Sir. And I did my work, Sir, based on what was tasked of me.

Sen.-Judge Raffy Tulfo

Now, you're talking about taking offense. Paano naman po 'yung mga taumbayan? They are being offended sa paglulustay n'yo ng pera. Lumilitaw na parang nilulustay ang pera dito eh. Pera ng taumbayan po, ito ang pinag-uusapan natin. If you're taking offense, mas lalo pong offended ang napakaraming Pilipino ngayon kasi hindi mo naibibigay ang tamang sagot.

 This article is about a current disaster where information can change quickly or be unreliable. Learn more

On the morning of 26 August 2026, a series of flash floods along the Trishuli River^[a] struck dozens of settlements in Nepal's Rasuwa and Nuwakot districts. The floods also affected the Gyirong Port area on the China–Nepal border, an important gateway for cross-border trade and tourism. The resulting flash floods and mudslides caused massive damage to populated areas, with officials reporting at least 162 confirmed deaths in Nepal and three in China. Authorities have issued flood warnings for communities along rivers in the Rasuwa, Nuwakot, Dhading, Gorkha, and Chitwan districts.

I really regret for not posting everything CN has aired during commercials for the last 7 years. Mainly as I've been tired with work and stuff. Now I'm trying to catch everything they are airing as it's much easier when the network barely adds new bumpers and promos. Next bumpers will be uploaded from now on. Every single one as movies and more shows air.

Blake Lively was awarded over $400,000 in attorneys' fees and costs, a fraction of the $8 million she'd requested amid her and Justin Baldoni's settlement, according to docs obtained by E! News.

After Lively settled her lawsuit against the film's director and costar Justin Baldoni, her legal team filed a motion in June seeking payment of $8,035,040.88 in attorneys' fees and costs from Baldoni and his partners at Wayfarer Studios. However, Lively ultimately received a fraction of what she requested with a judge awarding her $363,245.40 in attorneys' fees and $44,206.35 in costs for a total of $407,451.75, according to documents obtained by E! Nakiisa si Vice President Sara Duterte sa pagdiriwang ng mga kababayan mula sa Barangay Bigaan, Surigao del Sur ng kanilang ika-18 na Araw ng Bigaan at 65th Patronal Fiesta ng Mother of Perpetual Help noong nakalipas na buwan.

"Hinikayat natin ang bawat opisyal ng barangay at ang kabataan na huwag hayaang masira ng politika, terorismo, insurhensiya, kriminalidad, at ilegal na droga ang kanilang pagkakaisa. Muli rin nating ipinaliwanag ang kahalagahan ng edukasyon o ang pagtatapos ng pag-aaral," ayon kay VP Sara.

Isinusulong na natin sa Senado ang Child Online Safety and Protection Act!

Matagal na natin itinutulak ang pagbabawal ng social media para sa mga edad 16 pababa dahil malinaw sa mga pag-aaral at rekomendasyon ng mga doktor na masama ang epekto ng social media sa mga bata.

Layunin ng panukalang ito na ilayo sila sa mga panganib gaya ng grooming at iba pang banta online.

Panahon nang gabayan ang ating mga kabataan tungo sa ligtas at responsableng paggamit ng teknolohiya.

Crucified Christ at Santa Monica Parish Church, Minalin Pampanga. The crucifix kept in the ante-choir of the Santa Monica Parish Church in Minalin, Pampanga, is believed to be approximately 400 years old, dating back to the 16th century.

The church itself is also over four centuries old, having been established by the Augustinians in 1614 and officially elevated to a parish in 1624. It is recognized as a National Cultural Treasure and is famous for its intricate architecture and rare capilla posas (corner chapels). Flash floods in Nepal and a mudslide in Tibet have caused widespread devastation, with hundreds missing after floodwater swept through riverside settlements in the north of Nepal, leaving destruction in its wake.

At least 95 people have died in the disaster, Nepali police said earlier today, but that toll is expected to rise once the waters recede and the true extent of the damage becomes clear. At least three people have been killed in Tibet and 265 others are missing, Chinese authorities just reported.

ACCOUNT OF CONSUL JOSE AMPESO ON HOW NINOY AQUINO GOT TWO PASSPORTS IN 1983

Sometime early in 1983, I learned from several sources and from Philippine newspaper accounts that Ninoy was dead serious about returning home and that authorities in the Philippines were already planning moves in reaction to this calculated move by Ninoy, taking into account the crucial factor of Marcos' faltering health. This meant that the latter was not in full control.

process of loving an idol, hindi natin kailangang isuka ang sarili nating identity as Filipinos.

Because admiration should never require self-abandonment.

What really caught my attention lately is seeing some fans attack Filipino artists as if being Filipino automatically makes someone inferior. And honestly, that's where I draw the line. You can love Thai entertainment. You can enjoy BL. You can have Thai actors as your favorites. Wala akong problema doon. Hindi rin ako homophobic. I know people who are part of the BL community, and I support them. Minsan nga kinikilig pa ako. Hehehe! Yeyyy!

My concern is not the nationality of the actors. My concern is the attitude of some fans who seem willing to insult Filipino artists just to defend foreign celebrities.

You don't have to destroy your own people just to prove that you love your idol.

And let's talk about Filipino celebrities who have actually shown up to help fellow Filipinos during difficult times.

Gerald Anderson is one example. During Typhoon Carina in Lately, habang nakikita ko sa feed ko ang iba't ibang posts, parang biglang napukaw ulit ang puso kong makabayan. You know, even when I was still in elementary, I genuinely loved learning about Philippine History. I was always fascinated by the stories of the people who came before us, the struggles they endured, and the sacrifices they made so that future generations could live with a stronger sense of identity and freedom.

And honestly, that love for our country never really disappeared.

Our history was not built overnight. Jose Rizal used his intellect, writing, and ideas to expose the realities of colonial oppression. Andres Bonifacio helped organize the Katipunan and became one of the central figures of the Philippine Revolution. Their stories remind us that loving the Philippines was never simply about waving a flag or memorizing names in a textbook. It was about having the courage to believe that Filipinos deserved dignity, unity, and a future of their own. The National Historical Commission of the Philippines records Rizal's advocacy and martyrdom, as well as Bonifacio's role in organizing the Katipunan and leading the revolution.

What matters is who is willing to help.

And this is also why I want to talk about what happened during the Star Magic All-Star Games between Team Star Magic and GMMTV.

I've been seeing posts and comments from some fans who are angry at Filipino players like Gerald Anderson and Ronnie Alonte, calling their style "dirty" because their favorite Thai players experienced physical contact or fell during the basketball game.

I understand being protective of someone you admire.

If your favorite actor or idol falls during a game, of course you'll worry. You might immediately ask, "Okay lang ba siya?" That's normal. That's human.

But concern and accusation are two different things.

If you're going to accuse a player of intentionally hurting another player, then there should be clear evidence that the action was deliberate and outside the normal physicality or rules of basketball.

Sometimes, we become so loyal to a fandom that we forget our own identity.

So maybe the lesson is simple.

Admire people, but don't worship them.

Support your idols, but don't lose yourself.

Love other cultures, but don't become ashamed of your own.

Defend what you believe in, but don't lose your humanity in the process.

And most importantly, be proud of where you came from while remaining humble enough to learn from the world.

Because at the end of the day, fandoms will change, celebrities will come and go, trends will disappear, and arguments on social media will eventually be forgotten.

But your character, your identity, your values, and the way you treated other people will remain.

So let's be proud Filipinos, but let's also be wise Filipinos.

Mabuhay ang Pilipinas. 🇵🇭

And yes, kung gusto niyo pa rin independence. Their sacrifices remind us that identity matters.

So yes, I will continue to love Philippine History.

I will continue to support Filipino talent.

I will continue to appreciate other cultures.

And I will continue to say, "Pilipino ako, and I'm proud of it."

Not because I believe we're perfect.

But because I know how much our ancestors endured for us to have the right to build a better Philippines.

And as a Christian, I also believe that loving our country should come with humility, wisdom, and love for other people. Proverbs 3:5-6 reminds us, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

Sometimes, we become so busy defending the people we admire that we forget to ask God to give us wisdom before we speak.

Sometimes, we become so passionate about winning an argument that we forget kindness.

Sometimes, we become so loyal to a fandom

Hindi po yan tea party. HAHAAHAHA!

Sana nag-jackstone na lang kayo kung gusto ninyo ng zero contact. HAHAAHAHA!

But jokes aside, this is where maturity comes in.

We can defend our idols without becoming unreasonable.

We can criticize Filipino artists without insulting Filipinos as a whole.

We can admire foreign culture without becoming ashamed of our own.

And we can disagree with another fandom without turning nationalism into hatred.

Because nationalism should not mean believing that everything Filipino is automatically better. True patriotism is more intelligent than that. It means recognizing our country's strengths, acknowledging our weaknesses, learning from others, and still choosing to value where we came from.

Our heroes did not fight so that future generations of Filipinos would be ashamed of being Filipino. Rizal's life and writings helped awaken a sense of nationhood, while Bonifacio organized Filipinos toward the struggle for independence. Their sacrifices

People who support different artists.

People who have different cultures.

People who speak different languages.

People who grew up differently from you.

You don't have to hate them just because they're different.

You don't have to abandon your identity just because you admire theirs.

You can appreciate someone else's culture without insulting your own.

And you can love your idols without making them the center of your entire identity.

Because admiration should add something beautiful to your life, not erase who you are.

And about the basketball issue, please lang. HAHAAHAHA!

Some people are saying, "Diba friendly game lang? Bakit palaging tumitilapon si Marc? Bakit ganito? Bakit ganyan?"

Te, basketball po. HAHAAHAHA!

2026-08-27 10:36:08

Because if a basketball game that was supposed to bring two cultures together ends with Filipinos and Thais insulting each other online, then we've completely missed the point.

The purpose of sports is not only to determine who wins.

It teaches discipline.

Teamwork.

Respect.

Humility.

And sometimes, even how to lose without becoming bitter.

Sometimes, the most impressive thing isn't scoring the most points.

It's knowing how to shake the opponent's hand after the game.

And that's a lesson that applies beyond basketball.

In life, you will meet people who don't agree with you.

People who support different artists

People who have different cultures

2026-08-27 10:36:05

I can appreciate Thailand and still love the Philippines.

I can admire Thai artists and still proudly support Filipino artists.

I can enjoy BL and still proudly say, "Pilipino ako."

I can cheer for my own team without wishing anything bad on the other team.

Because loving your country doesn't require you to hate another country.

And supporting your idol doesn't require you to hate the people playing against them.

The Star Magic All-Star Games itself was presented as a Philippine-Thailand crossover built around sportsmanship and cultural exchange. Team Star Magic was led by Gerald Anderson and Ronnie Alonte, while Fyang Smith was part of the Star Magic women's volleyball roster.

So please, let's not allow fandom to erase our common sense.

Because if a basketball game that was supposed to bring two cultures together ends with Filipinos and Thais insulting each other online, then we've completely missed the point.

2026-08-27 10:36:02

Judge the action.

Not the passport.

Judge what actually happened.

Not the fandom narrative surrounding it.

And this is where I think some people need to separate fandom from reality.

Your idol is not your entire identity.

Your idol is not your family.

Your idol does not need you to destroy another person just to prove that you love them.

You can support them without becoming hateful. You can defend them without insulting Filipinos. You can be disappointed with a particular play without declaring an entire nationality disrespectful.

And you can love Thai actors without becoming ashamed of Filipino actors.

That's called balance.

And honestly, that's what I think real confidence looks like.

I can appreciate Thailand and s

2026-08-27 10:35:59

Because sometimes, our love for someone can make us see situations differently.

And that's not exclusive to Thai fans. Filipino fans can do the same thing.

If Gerald or Ronnie genuinely made a dirty play, then they should be criticized fairly.

I'm not saying Filipino players are automatically right simply because they're Filipino.

No.

That's not patriotism.

That's bias.

True patriotism doesn't mean defending every Filipino action blindly. It means loving your country while still having enough honesty to recognize its mistakes.

But at the same time, being fair also means we should not automatically label Filipino players as dirty simply because someone from the opposing team got hurt or fell.

Judge the play.

Not the nationality.

Judge the action.

2026-08-27 10:35:56

You concluded that the Filipino player intentionally hurt him.

That's an interpretation.

Those two things are not automatically the same.

And this is where wisdom matters.

Social media has made it incredibly easy for people to react before they understand. One short clip can make thousands of people angry. One caption can completely change the way people perceive an event. One emotional post can turn a basketball game into an entire fandom war.

Before we share something, maybe we should ask ourselves:

"Did I watch the entire play?"

"Do I understand the sport?"

"Was there evidence that the contact was intentional?"

"Am I reacting to what actually happened, or am I reacting because my favorite person was involved?"

Because sometimes, our love f

2026-08-27 10:35:53

Why can't we simply say, "Our idols played a competitive game, there were physical moments, everyone played their part, and hopefully everyone is okay"?

Why does supporting your idol have to mean attacking the opposing team's players?

That's the part I genuinely don't understand.

You can say, "I was worried when my favorite player fell."

You can say, "I hope he's okay."

You can say, "I didn't like that particular play."

Those are reasonable opinions.

But saying, "Filipino players are dirty," or automatically accusing Gerald or Ronnie of deliberately trying to hurt someone is a much more serious claim.

And serious claims require evidence.

We have to learn the difference between what we actually saw and what we assumed happened.

You saw someone fall.

That's what happened.

You concluded that the Filipino player

2026-08-27 10:35:42

And let's be honest, if you've watched enough basketball, you already know this.

Players fall.

Players collide.

Players get bumped.

Players lose balance.

Sometimes your favorite player gets knocked down. Sometimes your favorite player makes the big play.

That's competition.

If there is genuinely an intentional dirty play, then call it out. That's fair. But if we're simply looking at normal basketball contact, let's not transform one play into an accusation against an entire group of Filipino players.

The event itself was promoted as more than just a competition. Gerald Anderson described it as two cultures coming together and emphasized sportsmanship, collaboration, and cultural exchange between the Philippines and Thailand.

So why are some people turning it into Filipinos versus Thais?

Why can't we simply say, "Our idols played a

Hindi puwedeng dahil nahulog ang idol mo, automatic dirty player na agad ang kalaban.

Basketball is a competitive and physical sport. Players defend, contest shots, fight for rebounds, move for position, and sometimes make contact. That doesn't automatically mean that every collision is an intentional attempt to hurt somebody.

And let's be honest, if you've watched enough basketball, you already know this

2026-08-27 10:35:35

Ronnie Alonte has also participated in rescue operations during Typhoon Carina. As a Philippine Army reservist, he joined fellow reservists in assisting people affected by flooding in Quezon City. He used not only his platform as an artist but also his training and position as a reservist to help during an actual disaster.

And then there's Fyang Smith. In 2025, Fyang and JM Ibarra helped their fans pack relief goods intended for families in Malabon City. She has also been associated with charitable efforts through her supporters.

And that's something I will always appreciate.

Because when calamity comes, when families lose homes, when people are stranded because of floods, when communities need food, water, medicine, and basic necessities, what matters is not who has the fanciest fandom.

What matters is who is willing to help.

And this is also why I want to talk about what happened during the Star Magic All-Star Games between Team Star Magic and GMMTV.

Ayon kay Padilla, kahit ang mga bayani, gumamit din ng mga alyas. Napag-usapan kasi sa trial ang mga umano’y “kakaibang pangalan” na pumirma sa mga acknowledgment receipt para sa confidential funds ng Office of the Vice President.

Sino-sino nga ba ang mga bayani na gumamit ng mga alyas?

Poong Hesus Nazareno, ipinagkakatiwala ko po sa Inyo ang aking pamilya, mga mahal sa buhay, at ang lahat ng aking mga alalahanin. Bantayan ninyo po kami sa habang gabi at ilayo sa anumang kapahamakan.

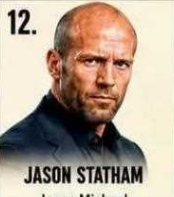

Poong Hesus Nazareno, patawarin ninyo po ako sa aking mga pagkukulang at kasalanan. Linisin ang aking puso, isipan at kaluluwa, upang sa bawat araw ay makapamuhay ako na ayon sa inyong kalooban.

“When my father passed away, his best friend of over 50 years sent me a picture of them both on a bridge in Zurich. It was from when they were young university graduates, travelling to Europe for the first time together. A year after my father’s passing, his friend’s daughter (who is like a sister to me) and I met in Venice. We decided to take a train to Zurich, buy clothes similar to what they wore in 1974, and try to recreate the same photo on Quaibrücke.”

RIVER JOSEPH SHOOTS HOOPS AT 'STAR MAGIC ALL-STAR GAMES 2026' 🏀💙

Nothing but big plays and even bigger memories! River Joseph looked back on his time at the “Star Magic All-Star Games 2026”, bringing fans along for the fun he shared on and off the court.

Showing off his basketball prowess, River gave his all to the celebrity match, as seen on his Instagram page last August 24. Of course, a little brotherhood moment also blossomed as he huddled with his team, the Star Magic Shooting Stars, and posed with his teammates, Emilio Daez and JM Ibarra.

“[S]awadee krap 🏀” River said, giving a playful nod to their Thai opponents.

mileycyrus The feeling of losing my Aunt Dolly is beyond what feels right to share. Our most sacred moments were private and they'll stay there behind the stage, beneath the glamour & between our hearts.

What I KNOW is Dolly would want me to feel it, write a song about it, and then continue on and be strong. I have an angel by my side. I always have. One of our last conversations was about music and metamorphosis. 🦋

I will always love her and want to make her proud. My heart breaks for the world, her family and friends who will miss her deeply. We're in this loss together and we will see her in all of the most beautiful things. 💖 @dollyparton

Taylor Swift Remembers Dolly Parton as "True Grace & True Grit, All in One Dazzling Person"

Aug 27, 2026 09:12:04

sabrinacarpenter 🌊 oh dolly ❤️ the only thing i could say after we first met was "she really is an angel walking the earth" and "we look like we could be sisters!"
i will cherish our laughter and conversations and i will keep your wisdom, your playful outlook on life, and perfect sense of humor in my pocket for the rainy days. there will never be another you and how lucky are we all to have experienced your singular magic as well as your once in a lifetime voice, songs, and heart.
your light will be something the world will search forever to find again 🌊🌊🌊 i will always love you

BEFORE AND AFTER NEPAL DISASTER

Satellite imagery captured on Wednesday, August 26, appeared to show a torrent of rocks and mud on a Nepalese mountain range bordering China after a suspected earthquake.

Torrential floods swallowed roads, bridges, houses, and power projects in the border areas of Nepal, and triggered a mudslide that hit Gyirong Port, a major land crossing with neighbouring Tibet, cutting roads, communications, and power links to the area.

It is suspected that an earthquake struck the region and triggered an ice-rock avalanche on the Lhende Khola river in Nepal, causing the floods. | via Reuters

Dolly Parton, who died Tuesday at the age of 80 following a brief battle with cancer, has another piece of music waiting for fans.

An unreleased song titled "My Place in History" remains locked inside a chestnut box at Dollywood's DreamMore Resort in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee.

Parton wrote and recorded the song in 2015, the year the resort opened, with instructions that the box remain sealed until Jan. 19, 2046, which would have marked her 100th birthday. <https://abcnews.visitlink.me/jioEA->
